COMPETITION RULES

1. All contestants must register and pay an entry fee. You may pre-register by mail for an early bird fee of $25 or register in person at the Festival for a fee of $35.
2. All contestants, including those who have pre-registered, must check in and certify their canvas or camera between 6:00am – 9:00am, Thursday, August 14. Contestants may make arrangements in advance for late check-in times.
3. Artwork must be completed within the boundaries of Carbon and Emery counties between 6:00am, August 14 and 6:00pm, August 15.
4. Plein Air Art contestants may use canvas, masonite, paper, or artboard. Frames are not required but all submitted works must be capable of proper wall display. Completed works that cannot be hung on the wall for display will not be considered for the competition or offered at the silent auction.
5. Plein Air Art contestants may submit up to three blank canvases or work surfaces for certification, but only one completed work will be accepted for competition and auction.
6. Digital Photography contestants may use their own printers or the printer provided on site at the Festival. Contestants must provide their own paper. All submissions must be on 11" X 14" paper with the image size no larger than 8" X 10." The Festival will provide each contestant with one 11" X 14" pre-cut gallery mat (8" X 10" center) for displaying the submitted work.
7. Digital Photography contestants are required to present, along with their completed work, an original digital camera image containing valid, unmodified time and date data.
8. All completed works must be returned in person by the registered contestant no later than 6:00pm, August 15. Please bring your submissions to the Competition Registration Desk in the Helper Workshops Bldg., 76 S. Main Street.
9. All artists retain copyright to works submitted but give permission to the Helper Arts and Music Festival to use an image of the work for promotional purposes for up to three years.
10. The competition directors reserve the right to reject work they deem unsuitable in form or content.
